

Information About the Authors

Danuta Chmielowska – PhD, Associate Professor, turkologist, political scientist, and a researcher and lecturer at the University of Warsaw. She is the author of many articles, studies, and books on the culture, literature, and contemporary history of Turkey, Polish-Turkish relations, and the Polish community in the 19th and 20th centuries. She has lectured at the University of Istanbul. In the years 1995–1998, she was the Consul General in Istanbul. A member of the Editorial Board of Türk-Islam Medeniyeti, Akademik Araştırmalar Dergisi (Konya). Also a member of the Union of Polish Translators and the Polish Orientalist Society.

Zeyneb Çağlıyan İçener – PhD, and an Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science and International Relations at İstanbul Ticaret University. Dr. Çağlıyan İçener holds BA, MA and PhD degrees in Political Science and Public Administration from Bilkent University. Her research and publications focus on Turkish politics, Turkish political thought, comparative political systems, and ethics in global politics. Dr. Çağlıyan İçener has published in peer-reviewed journals including “Turkish Studies”, “Southeast European and Black Sea Studies”, “bilig: Journal of Social Sciences of the Turkic World”, and “Muhafazakâr Düşünce Dergisi” (the Journal of Conservative Thought).

Adam Szymański – PhD, political scientist, and an Associate Professor at the Faculty of Political Science and International Studies, University of Warsaw; in 2004–2011 also an analyst at the Polish Institute of International Affairs (PISM) in Warsaw; in 2012–2013 he was a TÜBİTAK research fellow at Koç University in Istanbul. He has published widely on EU enlargement, Turkish politics and democratisation from a comparative perspective, including such articles in the “European Foreign Affairs Review”, PS: “Political Science & Politics”, and “Turkish Studies”.

Erhan İçener – PhD, and an Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science and International Relations at İstanbul Sabahattin Zaim University. He is the Vice Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, and the Chair of the Department of Political Science and International Relations at İstanbul Sabahattin Zaim University. Dr. İçener holds a BSc in International Relations from the Middle East Technical University, an MSc with Distinction in European Integration, and a PhD in European Studies from Queen's University, Belfast. His research and publications focus on EU enlargement, EU external relations, Romania and Turkey's integration with the EU, and the Cyprus issue. Dr. İğener has published in peer-reviewed journals including "Southeast European and Black Sea Studies", the "Journal of Contemporary European Studies", "Perspectives on European Politics and Society", "Insight Turkey", and "bilig: Journal of Social Sciences of the Turkic World".

Selin M. Bölme – PhD, and an Associate Professor at Marmara University, Institute of Middle East and Islamic Countries. She received her PhD in International Relations at Ankara University. She has worked as a Visiting Researcher in the Defence Studies Department at King's College London where she also carried out her post-doctoral research. Bolme has extensively published on Turkish foreign policy, the Middle East, Turkey-US affairs, NATO, and defence and security issues. Her PhD thesis, titled "US Military Base Politics and Turkey: A Study on İncirlik Air Base", was published as a book in 2012.

Kenan Aydın – PhD, and a professor at the Business Administration Department, Faculty of Economics, Administrative Sciences, and Social Sciences, Gelişim University. His research interests are marketing, sales management, consumer behaviour, and retail management.

Mehmet Ali Özçobanlar – PhD, and an Assistant Professor at the University of Commerce and Services (WSHiU). He studied foreign trade and business administration at the Anatolian University in Eskisehir. After his studies in Türkiye, he continued his education in Malta. Meanwhile, he started living between the two countries of Greece and Turkey. He earned his Ph.D. in economics from the University of Warsaw in 2018. He was a lecturer at Istanbul Bilgi University and was a Post-doctoral fellow in a project financed by The Scientific and Technological Research Institution of Turkey. He completed his postgraduate studies in "International Business" at the Faculty of Management at the University of Warsaw and completed a module in Applied Economics and Business Master at Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona in Spain. He was a lecturer of an IBP programme at the University of Warsaw, and also a lecturer of EU economic policies in the Middle East and Turkey. His articles have been published in scientific journals in Canada, Greece, India, Poland, Slovakia, Ukraine, and the USA.

Talip Küçükcan – PhD, and a Professor of Sociology at Marmara University in Istanbul, Turkey. He graduated from Uludag University (1986) and received an MA from the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London (1990). Küçükcan completed his PhD in Ethnic Relations at the University of Warwick (1997) and worked as a Research Fellow at the Centre for Research in Ethnic Relations at the same university between 1997 and 1999. He is specialised in state-religion relations, migration, and Turkish politics. He is the author and editor of several books including: “Global Disruptions and the Making of a New Middle East”, (edited by Talip Küçükcan), İstanbul: TRT World Research Centre, 2022; “Politics of Ethnicity, Identity and Religion: Turkish-Muslims in Britain”, Avebury: Ashgate, December, 1999; “EuroTurks and Turkey-EU Relations: The Dutch Case” (co-authored with V. Güngör), Turkevi Research Centre, Amsterdam, 2006; “Turks in Europe: Culture, Identity and Integration”, (Co-edited with V. Güngör), Amsterdam: Turkevi Research Centre, Amsterdam, 2009; and “Diaspora Türkleri: Avrupa’da Türk İmajı ve İslamofobi” (Diaspora Turks: Turkish Image and Islamophobia in the West), İstanbul: Çizgi Yayınevi, 2021.